Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102 and 35 § USC 103

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3624

3. Claims 1-9, 11-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kanter.

The claims are rejected as set forth in the previous office action.

4. Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Fleming.

The claims are rejected as set forth in the previous office action.

5. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kanter in view of Dethloff et al.

The claims are rejected as set forth in the previous office action.

6. Claims 19-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dethloff et al.

The claims are rejected as set forth in the previous office action.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed 5-6-02 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The claim language to a "first account" and "second account" does not preclude one account as being a species of the other account, as disclosed to Fleming and Dethoff et al.

Art Unit: 3624

The claim recitation to "distinct" does not require the independence of the accounts claimed, such that both Fleming and Dethoff et al disclose this limitation.

Claim 8 recites "reward pooling options" which is met by Kanter's pooling of commissions in an account (col 21, lines 52-64). The claim does not recite that rewards offered by each of the accounts are aggregated to a group.

The claims are not limited to all group processing options being independent for each relationship. Since all references show at least one distinction between each account, at least some of the group processing options for each relationship is independent.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
